Nine local Sault Ste. Marie Figure Skaters Qualify to Represent Northern Ontario at the Skate Ontario Championships in Port Colborne Ontario on March 17 -19. Lake Superior Figure Skating Club had another impressive showing this weekend where they competed at the ESSAR Centre in the 2017 Festival of Stars Event.

This event identifies the top figure skaters from across Northern Ontario who are vying for a spot in the 2017 Skate Ontario Provincial Championships in March. Kerry Bain, Director of Skating for the LSFSC was very pleased with the weekend results.

"Having nine skaters represent Lake Superior at Provincials is a result of hard work and dedication of coaches, skaters and volunteers. Not only did our skaters reach their goals achieving personal bests, they showed tremendous team spirit. Our team of coaches are extremely proud of the continued success and development of our skaters both on and off the ice."
